

ORBIT

an indie game by Mikkel Christiansen

About the game

Become the overlord of the galaxy and your friends! In Orbit you battle your friends for intergalactic dominance. Shoot the other players to steal their points, and grow your planet. The longer your missile travels in space, the more prestige and points are awarded to you (and deducted from your enemy!).

Features:

- Simple one-button controls
- Fun and addictive multiplayer battles for up to 4 players
- 8 missile types with crazy powers
- Do skill-shots using the gravity of the sun and planets
- Shrink your buddies while you grow all powerful
- Randomly generated solar systems

About the developer

I am an indie developer based in Copenhagen Denmark. When creating games i try to create fun and original interaction experiences. ORBIT is my first serious game for the iPad, and I am very proud of it. You can also try my game TYPER for free on the Mac App Store.
